

The image features two elegant, tulip-shaped glasses filled with a light-colored, bubbly cocktail. Each glass is garnished with a fresh sprig of rosemary and a slice of citrus. The background is a soft-focus bokeh of warm, golden-orange and pinkish-purple lights, suggesting an indoor setting with decorative lighting. The overall mood is sophisticated and inviting.

Dear Grace is a stylish neighbourhood bar and eatery serving delicious drinks and wholesome food throughout the day in the heart of White City Place. Elope from the office for a coffee in comfort, treat yourself to a plate or two of our carefully prepared provisions or unwind with some lively evening cocktails.

Nestled in the heart of White City Place, Dear Grace reflects the creative campus in which we sit. Our team is happiest when developing new flavours, tastes and experiences to share with the people who live, work and pass through White City Place every day.

food & drink

Dear Grace serves a modern all-day menu of wholesome dishes, made from locally sourced ingredients and prepared with care. Interesting small plates packed with flavour, bright and healthy salad bowls and a smoky grill form the heart of the menu, while our sharing boards tie everything together for the indulgent or the indecisive.

Refined cocktails dripping in fresh fruit, food sourced from local markets and an obsession with freshness and seasonality means there is something for every taste at Dear Grace, all year round.
